About the Conference

At the outset, as part of TAFISA Mission 2030, the All India Association of Sports for All (AIASFA) will organize the 6th International Sport for All Conferences through online under the auspicious of Asiana Sports For All Association, which would benefit a unique place in society across the world. The workshop series leverages sport for all to tackle different issues faced by the world on its knees and in sports activities. In the past five sessions, academicians, public officers, sports managers, and leaders of NGO's have contributed. In further sessions, AIASFA wishes to address the views of experts in the different areas with respect to "TAFISA Mission 2030", especially in the angle of how a country's sports leadership affects and makes changes for the betterment of their communities.

The sixth edition of the International Sport for All Conference mainly focused on the topic of "Leadership and Athlete Satisfaction and Management in International Sports". The conference will be held online from 30th – 31st January 2022 at 10 00 AM to 05 PM Indian Standard Time) (IST) and will be emboldened by the presence of sports experts, policymakers, academicians, and research scholars from across the globe, whose findings will help uncover fresh perspectives. Faculty members, researchers, and students of your institution are welcome to contribute their ideas in the form of academic papers, the submission details of which are available on the Conference website <https://www.aiasfa.org/>
